Full Time Cricket Professional January 2011

c.£30,000

Rugby School is seeking a full time cricket professional following Gary Brent's recent move to the Zimbabwe Cricket Union.

Following a considerable investment in cricket, Rugby School is looking for a dynamic coach that will help in the development of the School's cricket programme. The successful candidate will be expected to coach from U12-1st XI level throughout the year.

International cricket tours are part of this programme and the School is scheduled to tour Dubai in 2011 and India in 2012.

Candidates will need to have:

- A genuine enthusiasm for the coaching of cricket to young players
- Previous coaching experience at a minimum of ECB level 3 or equivalent
- Experience of playing 1st Class Cricket

Other Duties:

- Rugby School and MCC run three coaching courses per annum that the successful candidate will be expected to manage.
- Coaching of other sports will take place during the winter and coaching qualifications in these sports will be a significant advantage.
- There will also be other duties that the successful candidate will perform including tutoring within a Boarding House and working within the Sports Centre.
