

Legal Panel member: Kendrah Potts

Year of Call: 2017 (Solicitor: 2006)
Chambers: 4 New Square, London

Profile

Kendrah has a broad practice that covers commercial litigation and arbitration, civil fraud and sports law. She is regularly instructed on complex commercial litigation and has been instructed on one of the biggest fraud cases in the Commercial Court.

Kendrah has extensive experience of commercial disputes and disciplinary matters in the sports sector. She is frequently instructed to act on misconduct charges, particularly in the fields of corruption, match-fixing and bringing the sport into disrepute. Kendrah is an accredited mediator, sits as an arbitrator and can work in French and Spanish.

Expertise

- Commercial Litigation
- Regulatory and Disciplinary

Appointments

- Panel member for the London Chamber of Arbitration and Mediation
- Panel member for Sports Resolutions (Legal Arbitrator and Mediator)
- CEDR accredited mediator
- Member of COMBAR

Testimonials

Kendrah is described as a “highly intelligent lawyer”, “sensational” and “a brilliant advocate, who is able to drill into the key points with ease”.

“She has a really good knowledge of sports and is punchy and to the point.”

“Very responsive, succinct and commercial in her approach, she is an excellent pair of hands.”

“Kendrah understands sports law issues with ease and grasps the fundamentals quickly. She’s always a pleasure to work with.”