

Legal Panel member: Damian Kelly

Profile

Damian is a Partner and Head of Employment at Lodders LLP Solicitors.

Damian has specialised in employment law for over 25 years. He has particular expertise in advising on employment contracts, disciplinary and grievance issues, contract terminations and settlement agreements. His experience in the sports sector includes advising county cricket clubs and football league managers.

Outside the law, Damian chairs the Board of a leading Midlands co-educational independent school and is a lapsed club cricketer and cricket nut."

Expertise

- Employment law
- Employment contracts and terminations
- Disciplinary and grievance issues
- Settlement agreements

Testimonials

The Chambers and Legal 500 Legal Directories have described Damian as "an excellent communicator" and "brilliant".

Damian's clients have said of him: "I have always found Damian to be a calming influence in what can sometimes be very stressful situations" and "he is plain-speaking and direct, quick to understand what we want and focusses on solutions."