

Mentor Bio

Rich Hudson

Rich is currently the Director of Cricket Operations at the PCA with responsibility for contractual and employment matters across the domestic and Hundred cricketers primarily. He also support the Dutch, Irish and Scottish Cricketers Association as Operations Director and work closely with WCA particularly with regards the evolving global cricket landscape. Prior to the PCA, Rich was Head of Cricket at CSM (now Wasserman) as a registered player agent for 12 years working with international cricketers and across multiple franchise competitions alongside maximising commercial rights and event opportunities in the Indian cricket market.