

Mentor Bio

Ian Thomas

Ian Thomas PCA Managing Director is a dedicated leader and advocate for athlete welfare. With over 20 years of experience in the cricketing world, Ian has been a pivotal force in championing the rights and personal growth of professional cricketers. He laid the foundation for his career post a successful eight-year professional playing career with Glamorgan CCC.

Throughout his tenure at the PCA, Ian has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to enhancing the lives of athletes, ensuring they receive the support and resources necessary to thrive both on and off the field. As an ILM qualified coach and mentor, Ian empowers individuals to unlock their potential and navigate the challenges of working in professional sport.

Ian is also a certified MBTI practitioner, utilizing personality assessments to foster self-awareness and collaboration among individuals.

With a wealth of experience and a genuine passion for the game and its people, Ian Thomas is not just a mentor; he is a beacon of support in the cricketing community, dedicated to nurturing the next generation of talent to succeed in their careers.